

objected that a political campaign made for the New Boston after Rep. John P. McMorrow (D., State House) conference with two that the movie crew had been bridge Smith School in Dorchester nning to do the same thing at the Readville.

★ ★

★ ★

protesting legislators and two school am F. Carr and Miss Mary K. Filtz- unded" motion pictures were being out his knowledge or permission.

(Continued on Page Fourteen)

Victory

th Defeated, 3-2, gue World Series

RED CIAMPA

Pa., Aug. 25—Newton North. ontention in the Little League osing a heartbreaking eight- ctady, 3-2.

The winning run came with two out in the last of the eighth on a home run by the New Yorkers' third baseman, Garry McKee. The ball struck the top of the right-field fence and bounced over.

Newton was within one pitch of wrapping up the ball game in the first overtime frame after scoring a run in the top of the seventh to go ahead, 2-1.

The first Schenectady batter in the seventh, Bill Massucci, singled. He stole second and continued on to third when Catcher John Gill's throw went into center field.

(Continued on Page Twenty)

ence, and that this was only natural, considering the fact that the United States had borne the brunt of the fighting for the United Nations.

However, Menon declared that in making arrangements for the political conference it was neces-

(Continued on Page Seventeen)

Sleeping Pills Missing with Wellesley Girl

A pretty Smith College poetess, who left home Monday, was still hunted by a police posse early today as Wellesley Police Chief Robert P. MacBey said he was worried about a missing bottle of sleeping pills.

The chief told The Herald: "It doesn't look good."

Bloodhound-led searchers yesterday failed to find any trace of Miss Sylvia Plath, 20, daughter of widowed Mrs. Aurelia S. Plath, a Boston University professor. She vanished Monday afternoon after leaving a note which read: "I'm going on a long hike. Will be back tomorrow."

No Clothes Gone

Chief MacBey quoted Mrs. Plath as saying, "There is no question of a boy in the case."

He said that none of the girl's clothes and none of her luggage were missing and that she couldn't have had "more than a very few dollars."

But, the chief added, at 6:45 yesterday morning, after a night-long hunt of nearby woods and ponds went clueless, he discovered that "a fresh prescription of 50 sleeping pills, which were under lock and key in her mother's room, were gone."

on the altar of international co-operation."

Addressing the annual banquet of the Judge Advocate Generals Association at the First Corps Cadets Armory, Bricker urged the Judge Advocate Generals of the three services, who were present, and lawyers in reserve corps that JAG officers "in NATO countries and Japan should ex-

(Continued on Page Seven)

Lightning Kills Malden Woman

Mrs. Mary F. Turpin, 50, of 28 Vernon St., Malden, was killed by lightning last night at Plymouth, N. H., where she had stopped for the night while on a vacation automobile trip with her husband, Ralph.

She was lying on a bed beside the window in a cabin of a colony operated by John Watts when lightning hit a tree outside, ripped through the window casing and struck her. Her husband, who was on the other twin bed, was unhurt.

A resident of Malden for more than 30 years, she was a member of the Sacred Heart Church. She leaves three sons, John R. and Ralph, Jr., of Malden, and Robert, of Medford, and two daughters, Mrs. Leon Bukirch and Miss Frances Turpin, both of Malden.

All your Thirst Could Ask!

SIMPSON SPRING
COLLEGE SODA

YOU HAVE N'T HAD IT!

Lobster at its best, well-stuffed, original, baked.

LOBSTER O'NEIL
(No crabs - no fuss)

A-L-L-E-N-H-U-R-S-T
114 DANVERS Tel. 644

DOG RACING
Tonite!
WONDERFUL

7:45 - 7:30