Bullet And Torch Victim Is 14-Year Old Somerville Girl—Authorities Warned To Use Caution In Handling Woman Wanted For Questioning In Case

SOMERVILLE, Aug. 25 (AP) - A "very pretty," 25year-old stenographer sought for questioning in the slaying of a 14-year-old friend may be broke and unable to travel, veteran detectives hinted today.

Police who worked through the night seeking Miss Mildred Mc-Donald to interview her about the bullet-and-torch slaying yesterday of Mary Di Rocco, said the 25-year-old woman "definitely was in year-old woman "definitely was in a Brighton (Boston) bar last night looking for a drink for a nickel looking for a drink for a nickel because that's all the money she

They added "the bartender definitely identified her from a pic-ture we showed him."

Police Police also have established, they said, that the McDonald woman recently had obtained a .22 amunist Should Be Permitted To easily in most any sporting goods store.

> Donald, a state employe, had kept company with Joseph Di Rocco, 25, the victim's brother, for about three years until he married another girl four months ago.
> Medical Examiner Andrew I

> Guthrie said five slugs from a .22 calibre target pistol entered the Di Rocco girl's body — in the heart, the head, jaw, abdomen and left wrist.

In addition, he said, there was a slash on the girl's throat as if made by a razor or a sharp knife.

Heavy motor oil had been poured over the girl's body and newspapers and a magazine, placed around the girl, had been set ablaze.

Police said the motor oil did not catch fire because it burns only under extreme high tempera-
